Dear Friends,

During these chilly mornings, we're infusing our favorite recipes with the cozy and festive notes that make this time of year so special. From hearty, seasonal fare to succulent roasted bites, our holiday menus are designed to tantalize taste buds and capture the essence of the season. With winter celebrations in full swing, we are thrilled to be part of your every event.

We extend our warmest wishes for a happy holiday season, filled with moments of joy, love, and cherished memories. Whether you find yourself surrounded by the laughter and warmth of loved ones or savoring peaceful moments of rest, may the flavors of the season add a touch of happiness to your festivities.

Wishing you a happy holidays,

Cathy Conway
Founder & President

This year, we are continuing to celebrate the three plus decades of Avalon Catering serving delicious farm-to-table foods throughout Atlanta and beyond!

We take immense pride in our role as a prominent player in the farm-to-table catering industry, with a track record of over 30 years of outstanding service. Our story is one of countless memorable events, delicious local foods served with integrity and style, and gratitude for the trust clients place in us year after year.

In our latest blog, we're sharing about our origins, our shared successes over the years, and where we plan to go from here. Whether you're new to the Avalon family or have been around since our start, read on to learn more about our journey!
