Dear Friends,

Happy Valentine's Day from the Avalon team! Our hearts are full this February from a sweet season of working with our favorites - you!

This time of year brings so much joy: from sharing sweet moments with loved ones, enjoying seasonal foods as warmer weather approaches, and excitedly anticipating a new year full of celebrations.

Here at Avalon Catering, we look forward to sharing our love with you the best way we know how in 2023 - through food! This year, we have fresh menus full of sustainable farm-to-table foods made with local ingredients to make all your gatherings a delicious success!

We can't wait to part of your special moments this year,

Cathy Conway
Founder & President

Event Spotlight

National Association for Catering & Events Atlanta Chapter Soirée

Our team loves collaborating with others in the Atlanta catering industry. Recently, we had the pleasure of working with the Atlanta NACE Chapter (National Association for Catering & Events) at their networking mixer at The Slate Room!

We recently had Avalon cater our office holiday party. The attention and detail...was not only beautiful but the quality of the food was the icing on the cake. We will use Avalon Catering for all of our upcoming events.
